

Sinclair Broadcasting should be prevented from showing the biased documentary attacking John Kerry.

Lies masquerading as news don't belong on the airwaves; and I believe showing the piece would violate federal election law.